DISTRACTED BRUSH

A brush font that never repeats itself.

Latin, Cyrillic and Greek capitals in a loose, bold brush. Letters swap to alternate shapes as you type, so a repeated letter never repeats its shape.

Lowercase keys give the same capitals. A revived brush face, pulled together from scraps of ephemera.

One word, three ways

DEFAULT: LETTERS ROTATE BY THEMSELVES

SS01: FROZEN, THE SAME LOOK EVERY TIME

SS02: EVERY ALTERNATE SWITCHED ON

Contextual alternates (calt) are on by default. Each letter looks back up to three letters. It takes an alternate only when the nearest earlier letter in the word that could have one was a default shape, so no two alternates sit side by side and the same shape never doubles up. Almost every letter has an alternate; O and the figures do not.

USING IT

Install

Double-click the OTF (or TTF) file and choose Install. Use the OTF or the TTF, not both.

Type

Lowercase and capitals give the same brush capitals. Alternates rotate on their own.

Freeze the look

Turn on Stylistic Set 1 (ss01) in your app, or in CSS: font-feature-settings: "ss01";

Force alternates

Turn on Stylistic Set 2 (ss02) to switch every alternate on.

Bulgarian

Set the text language to Bulgarian and Д and Л switch to their Bulgarian shapes (locl).

LANGUAGES

Supports 355 Latin languages, 16 Cyrillic languages and Modern Greek (checked with Hyperglot), including Vietnamese, Turkish, Polish, Russian, Ukrainian, Bulgarian, Serbian, Macedonian and Greek.

LICENSE

Use it in personal and commercial projects. Please do not share or resell the font files. The full license is in LICENSE.txt and in the license PDF in this download.
